

The Remote and Rural Workforce strategy should also cover:

Investment and resources to allow health and care employers to meet their safe staffing duties. In particular, there needs to be further recognition of, and investment in, the registered nurse role across community, social care and primary models of care and the needs of local populations.

Long term workforce planning and improved data

Increased access to technology - The strategy must recognise that mobile

